

Editors

Ruth DeSouza
Andy Williamson

journal@aen.org.nz

AENJ is available online at:
journal.aen.org.nz

AENJ is published by

Wairua Consulting Limited
PO Box 60-517
Titirangi
Waitakere 0642
Aotearoa/New Zealand
info@wairua.co.nz
www.wairua.com

Copyright © 2006 Wairua Consulting
Limited and individual authors.

Where applicable AENJ is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs 2.5 License. You can copy and redistribute for non-commercial purposes but must not alter and you must acknowledge both the author and AEN Journal in full.

www.creativecommons.org

Cover photograph of the Coexistence exhibition at Britomart Place, Auckland by Ruth DeSouza.

Welcome to the new AEN Journal	1
Ruth DeSouza and Andy Williamson
Guest Editorial	3
Joris de Bres
Sharing words	5
Tariana Turia
The Israel – Palestine Problem: The perspective of a New Zealand Progressive Jew	9
Dave Moskovitz
The Israel – Palestine Problem: The perspective of a New Zealand Muslim	14
Anjum Rahman
Representing Ethnic Communities in the Media	20
Andy Williamson and Ruth DeSouza
Stigma, racism and power	24
Suman Fernando
Seeking Asylum	29
Amy R. West
Multiculturalism in New Zealand – the need for a new paradigm	33
Mervin Singham
Cultural diversity and context	38
Kate Woodd
Should we be pushing for a Ministry of Asian Affairs, a Ministry of Ethnic Affairs, or neither? A ‘Socratic’ ‘dialogue’ between two ‘Asians’	41
Tze Ming Mok and Kumanan Rasanathan
Pasifika Hip Hop Poetry Doing the Healing	46
Rev. Mua Strickson-Pua aka REV MC
Information for Contributors	50